

Internet Safety Agreement

I promise to never give anyone my personal information or information about my family when I am online. Examples of my personal information include my name, age, address, telephone number, school or passwords.

I promise to never write anything mean or post any picture or video that hurts, humiliates or makes fun of others.

I promise to let my parents know if someone sends me a mean message and I promise not to respond to it.

I promise to only talk, text or chat with people I know and if whom my parents have approved.

I promise to always ask my parents before joining any site, club or social media site.

I promise to not click on any advertisements that may pop up on my screen or come to me in an email.

I promise to always tell my parents if I find anything that makes me uncomfortable while I am on the internet, such as bad words, pictures or videos that make me afraid or uncomfortable.

I know that my parents will be checking my internet steps and other digital places I visit to keep me safe.
